Dressmaking for Haiti Kids

Unfortunately during a pandemic the poor remain poor. This is why our dedicated members continued to sew hundreds of dresses, shorts, and misc. items for the poor children of Haiti. While the world was social distancing, we stayed close to those in need. And though our work will continue behind the scenes, it is time for our annual break. Our last meeting will be April 21st. For the details please call Sharan at (941) 456-3153.

Thank you for living in faith not fear, and for bringing to fruition the words of our Lord in Luke's Gospel, "To whom much is given, much is required." May God bless you abundantly!

DIOCESE OF VENICE IN FLORIDA

OFFICE OF THE BISHOP

April 2021

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Thousands of Catholics live in poor dioceses in areas such as Appalachia, the Deep South, the Rocky Mountain states, etc. The struggle to receive basic pastoral care and catechesis is real for thousands of faithful living in Home Mission Dioceses.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal Collection supports these dioceses in our own country as they struggle to make ends meet. "Home Missions" is the name for dioceses in the United States which cannot provide basic pastoral services to Catholics without additional help. Pastoral services include Mass and Sacraments, religious education, training for priests, deacons, religious sisters, and lay people. The Catholic Home Missions Appeal aides these Mission Dioceses in forming vibrant faith communities and strengthening the Church in Mission areas.

The Catholic Home Missions Appeal Collection will take place in the Diocese of Venice the weekend of April 24 and 25, 2021. Please be generous in the Collection. Your support makes a difference in the lives of our brothers and sisters right here in the United States. Thank you!

I take this opportunity to assure you and your families of my continued consideration, as well as my prayers.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Frank J. Dewane
Bishop of the Diocese of Venice in Florida

We especially welcome those who received Baptism, Eucharist, and Confirmation. They are now known as Neophytes and are the newest members of our Faith Community! Please also welcome those who received First Eucharist and/or Confirmation as they are strengthened to live the Christian life, and to “share the Good News, using words if necessary!”

The RCIA, Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults, is open to all adult non-Catholics who wish to learn about the Catholic Faith, and to adult Catholics who need the Sacraments of Eucharist and/or Confirmation.

RESPECT LIFE

Do you listen to the daily news that comes with a negative spin? Despite what you hear, there is reason for hope. According to a report by the 40 DAYS FOR LIFE organization, "A majority of millennials want to prohibit abortion in most or all situations, and approximately 84 percent of young voters believe abortion should be restricted"

This is good news. However, the sad fact remains that parents who could have influenced their children to accept the 1973 abortion boom instead aborted their children, as only the living have choices. Clearly, family life has more influence on children than the myriad of institutions that promote the culture of death.

As Catholics and Christians, let's keep promoting the good news of the Gospel. Keep preaching our love of God and family, and reclaim the high ground of social justice.

(Babies aborted this week: Luna, Finn, Isla, Elijah, and Hazel. Please spiritually adopt one of them and keep him or her in your prayers.)

"Those who behold the Sacrament of the Eucharist, consecrated by the priest, but see only the appearances of bread and wine and do not— with the grace of the Holy Spirit—believe that it is truly the Body and Blood of Christ, condemn themselves, because they do not believe the testimony of the Lord himself who says: 'This is my Body and Blood of the new covenant' and who promises 'He who eats my Flesh and drinks my Blood has eternal life' (John 6:56). And just as he showed himself to his holy Apostles in the form of man, in like manner he allows himself to be seen in the consecrated bread. Despite the fact that with the eyes of the body they saw only the flesh—but by contemplating it with the eyes of faith believed nonetheless that he was God—so we, too, seeing the bread and wine with the eyes of the body, believe that the most holy Body and Blood are present, alive and true, in the Eucharist. In this way, the Lord is always present in the midst of his faithful, as he himself promised, saying: 'Behold, I am with you until the end of the world.'" (Matthew 28:20) -St. Francis of Assisi

Easter Season

What Is the Octave of Easter?

The period from Easter Sunday through Divine Mercy Sunday (the Sunday after Easter Sunday) is an especially joyful time. The Catholic Church refers to these eight days (counting both Easter Sunday and Divine Mercy Sunday) as the Octave of Easter. (Octave is also sometimes used to indicate the eighth day, that is, Divine Mercy Sunday, rather than the entire eight-day period.)

Every day in the Octave of Easter is so important that it is treated as a continuation of Easter Sunday itself.

How Many Days Does the Easter Season Last?

The Easter season doesn't end after the Octave of Easter: Because Easter is the most important feast in the Christian calendar, even more important than Christmas, the Easter season continues on for 50 days, through the Ascension of Our Lord to Pentecost Sunday, seven full weeks after Easter Sunday! Indeed, for the purpose of fulfilling our Easter Duty (the requirement to receive Communion at least once during the Easter season), the Easter season extends a bit further, until Trinity Sunday, the first Sunday after Pentecost.

How Many Days Are Between Easter and Pentecost?

Just as we count both Easter Sunday and Divine Mercy Sunday in the Octave of Easter, so, too, we count both Easter Sunday and Pentecost Sunday in the 50 days of the Easter season. So even after Easter Sunday has passed, and the Octave of Easter has passed, keep on celebrating and wishing your friends a happy Easter.

Keep Celebrating

As St. John Chrysostom reminds us in his famous Easter homily, "Christ has destroyed death, and now is the "feast of faith."

WELCOME TO DELICIOUS

2021 Catholic Faith Appeal

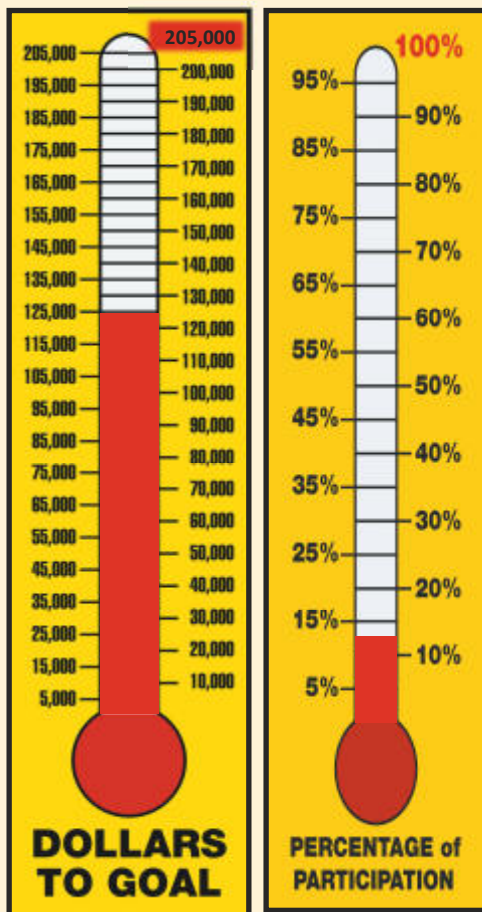

*Be generous, and you will be prosperous.
Help others, and you will be helped."*

(Proverbs 11:25)

In our giving, we emulate Jesus who showed us what it means to love and to give. "Greater love has no one than this, that someone lay down his life for his friends." (John 15:13) Jesus gave us the greatest and the most perfect gift by offering Himself on the Cross. With hearts filled with love for what He did for us, we become "givers" rather than "takers." Giving expresses our love for the Lord. In light of what God has done for us through His Son, how can we not give freely to Him? As we give, God fills us with even greater joy and fulfillment. As we ponder what God has done for us, let us show our love to Him through our generosity.

Thanks to all who have already contributed to the CFA! We are most grateful. We couldn't do it without you.

Thank you and may God bless you during this season of Eastertide!

Coronavirus Prayer

"Father, we ask that you give all of those serving on the frontlines of our war with the Coronavirus, especially our health care professionals, wisdom and understanding, and strength and courage to serve the cause of protecting and saving life. We ask this in the name of Your beloved Son, Jesus Christ our Lord! Amen."

RULES FOR ATTENDING MASS DURING THE PANDEMIC

- Everyone entering the Church must have on a mask. A scarf or bandana will also suffice.
- Everyone must sanitize their hands before entering the Church. Additionally, please sanitize your hands immediately before you receive Communion and immediately afterwards.
- You may only receive Communion passively on your hand, not on your tongue. Please do not attempt to take the Host from the priest and do not cup your hand like a basket. Keep your hand as flat as possible. The priest will then attempt to place the Host on your hand without touching you. While receiving Communion, please KEEP YOUR MASK ON. Once you receive the Eucharist, step a few feet to the side, pull down your mask, place the Eucharist in your mouth, pull your mask back up, and return to your pew.
- Please refrain from touching anything in the church unless it is absolutely necessary.
- If you are sick, experiencing the slightest of symptoms, or are at greater risk of becoming seriously ill because of your age or a previous condition, or if you live with, work with, or have been exposed to anyone who fits this description, we strongly urge you to stay home and attend the online live-streamed Mass or the TV Mass. This precaution is for our own safety as well as for that of your family, friends, and fellow parishioners.
- Please consider attending the 7:00 AM or 5:30 PM Masses on Sunday, as they are usually more lightly attended.
- Social Distancing rules must be followed. Pews have been roped off to create space. Please do not sit close to people you do not live with.
- The sign of Peace will be omitted.
